

Unified Regulatory Plan for Old Dominion University for State Fiscal Year 2023
Prepared October 13, 2022

Old Dominion University offers over 150 undergraduate, graduate, and professional degrees, including 22 doctoral degrees and two educational specialist degrees. The main campus is located in Norfolk, Virginia, with extended higher education centers in Virginia Beach, Portsmouth, and Hampton. The board of visitors is authorized to make regulations and policies concerning the institution. Code of Virginia, Title 23.1, Chapter 13.

The board of visitors or other governing body of every state-supported institution of higher education in Virginia is authorized to adopt regulations or institutional policies for the acceptance and assistance of students; for the conduct of students in attendance and for the rescission or restriction of financial aid, suspension, and dismissal of students who fail or refuse to abide by such regulations or policies; for the employment and dismissal of professors, teachers, instructors and other employees; and for parking and traffic on property owned, leased, maintained or controlled by the institution.

In accordance with Virginia Code § 2.2-4002(A)(6), institutions of higher education are exempt from the requirements of the Administrative Process Act, Code of Virginia, Title 2.2, Chapter 40. Old Dominion University has one regulation, 8 VAC 65-10, Weapons on Campus, which became effective on January 13, 2012. There are no planned regulatory actions for this regulation in the next twelve months.
